By-Laws

Expenses covered include the following:

1. Internal clubs may claim a maximum of up to $250 for food costs for the ENTIRE YEAR. Food may be provided for one-time learning events (assessed based on individual event) at the following rates (all organizations subject to these restrictions):
 - a. St. George
 - i. Breakfast: maximum reimbursement of $2 per person per meal
 - ii. Lunch/Dinner: maximum reimbursement of $4 per person per meal
 - b. UTM
 - i. Breakfast: maximum reimbursement of $4 per person per meal
 - ii. Lunch/Dinner: maximum reimbursement of $6 per person per meal
2. Funding for speaker gifts may be provided for one-time learning events or if the speaker has participated in multi-session seminars with a maximum reimbursement based on the following:
 - a. $15 per speaker
 - b. Reasonable transportation costs
3. Policy only for 2022-2023: Participant gifts to encourage engagement during events is limited to maximum $250 for the entire academic year per club. Furthermore, for each event, a maximum of $10/gift card can be given to a maximum of 10% of attendees (ie. one giftcard for each eligible attendee). The selection for who receives a gift card should remain unbiased (e.g. lottery or winner of a contest, etc).
4. The Medical Society may provide, at its discretion, "start-up" funding or fund conference expenses if it can be shown that costs cannot be covered by fundraising, external sponsorships and/or reasonable conference fees.
5. Sports where students play on a team to represent the Faculty of Medicine may be partially funded (e.g. intramurals).
6. Expenses not covered include the following:
 - a. Food for regular club meetings or club staff.
 - b. 'Miscellaneous costs' for any clubs or events.
 - c. Water bottles for any events held on campus.
 - d. Clubs/events for which costs can foreseeably be covered by funding from external sources (e.g. corporate sponsors, national/international groups, departments within the Faculty of Medicine, revenue from the event itself, etc.).
 - e. Third Party Charitable Clubs/Events may apply to the Medical Society for funding of operational costs, as would any other student group. At the end of the year, Third Party Charitable Clubs/Events will repay to the Medical Society all profits above and beyond 80% of the collected revenue to a maximum of the original amount provided by the Medical Society.
 - f. Events which are already being conducted by another organization.
 - g. Recreational sports where cost without subsidization is not prohibitive for participation (exception: intramurals).
 - h. Alcohol.

Expenses in violation of these bylaws will not be reimbursed.

Clubs that demonstrate a consistent failure to include students at MAM in their programming (videoconferencing or hosting parallel events) may be subject to funding consequences and in some cases compromise their club's MedSoc status).
